Several McMill CPA and Advisors personnel have designations, which are conveyed by acronyms. Please see below for an explanation of the designations received by the firm's personnel.

Certified Financial Planner (CFP®)

In order to qualify as a Certified Financial Planner (CFP®), applicants must pass an examination in regard to financial planning prescribed by the Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc., have a bachelor's degree (or higher) from an accredited college or university, and have three years of personal financial planning experience. A specified number of continuing education hours are also required to maintain this designation.

Certified Public Accountant (CPA)

In order to qualify as a Certified Public Accountant (CPA), applicants must pass the Uniform Certified Public Accountant Examination and meet additional state education and experience requirements. A specified number of continuing education hours are also required to maintain this designation.

Certified Valuation Analyst (CVA)

In order to qualify as a Certified Valuation Analyst (CVA), applicants must pass an examination in regard to valuation services prescribed by the National Association of Certified Valuators and Analysts (NACVA), hold a valid CPA license, and be a member in good standing with NACVA. A specified number of continuing education hours are also required in order to maintain this designation.

Certified Fraud Examiner (CFE)

In order to qualify as a Certified Fraud Examiner (CFE), applicants must either pass an examination prescribed by the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners (ACFE) and/or meet certain minimum academic and professional requirements, be a member in good standing with ACFE, be of high moral character, and agree to abide by the bylaws and Code of Professional Ethics of the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners. A specified number of continuing education hours are also required in order to maintain this designation.

Personal Financial Specialist (PFS)

In order to qualify as a Personal Financial Specialist (PFS), applicants must pass an examination in regard to financial planning prescribed by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA), be a CPA, be a member of the AICPA in good standing, and meet experience requirements. The PFS designation is a designation that is prescribed by the AICPA and is used in conjunction with the CPA designation as CPA/PFS. A specified number of continuing education hours are also required to maintain this designation.

Qualified Plan Financial Consultant (QPFC)

In order to qualify as a Qualified Plan Financial Consultant (QPFC), applicants must pass an examination in regard to retirement planning, administration, and regulatory requirements of qualified retirement plans prescribed by the American Society of Pension Professionals & Actuaries (ASPPA), hold a Series 65 license, and meet experience requirements. ## McMill CPA PC

McMill CPA PC is a Certified Public Accounting (CPA) firm licensed with the state of Nebraska. If in the employee's capacity as an investment adviser representative with McMill CPA and Advisors, the employee determines that a client is in need of tax or accounting services, the client may be referred to McMill CPA PC. In addition, if accounting or tax clients of McMill CPA PC are in need of financial planning or other advisory services, the employee, acting in his/her separate capacity as an accountant or other employee of McMill CPA PC, may refer or recommend investment advisory services available through McMill CPA and Advisors.

Clients are not obligated in any manner to use the services or an accounting firm recommended by the employee. If any McMill CPA and Advisors client also becomes an accounting client of McMill CPA PC, the client will be charged separately for the accounting services.

Insurance Agent

In order to obtain an Insurance Producer license in the State of Nebraska, applicants must pass an examination. A specified number of continuing education hours are required to maintain this license.

Some employees of McMill CPA and Advisors are independently licensed to sell insurance and annuity products through various insurance companies. When acting in this capacity, the employee will earn commissions for selling insurance and annuity products, which commissions are received by McMill CPA PC.

The earning of commissions may affect the judgment of the employee when recommending products to clients. While the employee endeavors at all times to put the interest of his/her clients first as part of his/her overall fiduciary duty to clients, clients should be aware that the earning of commissions and earning any additional compensation itself creates a conflict of interest, and may affect his/her decision-making process when making recommendations.

Clients are never obligated or required to purchase insurance products from or through the employee and may choose any independent insurance agent and insurance company to purchase insurance products. Regardless of the insurance agent selected, the insurance agent or agency will receive normal commissions from the sale.

These insurance services and products are being offered as a convenience to the clients of McMill CPA and Advisors, Wealth Management Nebraska LLC, and McMill CPA PC

Retirement Plan Consultants LLC

Retirement Plan Consultants LLC (RPC) is a retirement plan service provider, which provides services as a third-party administrator (TPA), recordkeeper, and retirement plan consultant. If in the employee's capacity as an investment adviser representative with McMill CPA and Advisors, the employee determines a client is in need of retirement plan consulting services, the client may be referred to Retirement Plan Consultants LLC. In addition, if retirement plan consulting clients of Retirement Plan Consultants LLC are in need of financial planning or other advisory services, the employee, acting in his/her separate capacity as a retirement plan consultant, may refer or recommend investment advisory services available through McMill CPA and Advisors.

Clients are not obligated in any manner to use the services or a retirement plan consulting firm recommended by the employee. If any McMill CPA and Advisors client also becomes a retirement plan consulting client of Retirement Plan Consultants LLC, the client will be charged separately for the retirement plan consulting services.

Some of the firm's personnel are registered with two Registered Investment Advisor (RIA) firms. Please see below for an explanation of the two RIA firms.
